

2013 Albariño, Dragone Vineyard

Situated at 2100 feet elevation, the Dragone Vineyard is located in Calaveras County above the town of Murphy's, California. This beautiful site is ideal for growing Spanish style varieties with moderately warm days and cool night.

Tasting Notes: Our Albariño is made in a classic style with enchanting aromas of fresh spring flowers, lemon grass, ripe melon and citrus. Lively flavors of ripe peach, honeydew melon, grapefruit, and a hint of white pepper. Amazing refreshment all packed in a perky white wine with a medium body and dry finish.
